
Supplementary Materials Figure S3. Donut plot of significant terms combined with logFC values. The height of the inner circle column represents the adjusted P value, with a higher height indicating a smaller P value. The fill color represents the Z score of each term.