S2: Selection criteria

Inclusion criteria
ClinROMs ClinROMs are defined in this review as instruments completed by a healthcare provider, which reports on a patient's health status.
If a minimum of 25% of the study population experiences segmental or non-segmental vitiligo, or if the evaluation of the measurement instrument's quality for the included vitiligo patients is conducted separately.
The quality assessment of at least one ClinROM measurement property is performed OR The development process of a ClinROM is discussed
Original research
Human subjects
Written in English

Exclusion criteria
Abstracts only
Control instruments*

ClinROM: Clinician-Reported Outcome Measure.
*Only clinimetric properties of the instruments of interest are included in this study