

Figure S1. The mean LD decay rate was estimated as the squared correlation coefficient ( $R^2$ ) using all pairs of SNPs located within approximately 400 kb of physical distance in genomic regions in five subpopulations of 316 upland cotton accessions