Figure S1. Boxplot of backscatter (σ^0 (VV) constant: VV polarization normalised to a reference angle of 40° with a constant slope) for all 60 study sites and the entire study period shown for bins of water table depth (WTD) of 10 cm. The boxplot indicates the high and WTD-independent variability of absolute values of σ^0.