

Aggression Test

Ear/cage number:

Race:

Gender:

Age:

Arrival date:

Neutered date:

Known acute or chronic illness:

Known incidents of violence (biting, dog fighting, harming employees, etc.):

Body mass index (numbering 1-5) (muscle condition and weight height should be considered):

	Questions	Never	Rarely	Often	Always
1	Aggressive when its food is touched while it is eating	①	②	③	④
2	Aggressive when it is passed while eating	①	②	③	④
3	Aggressive when food is added to its bowl while eating	①	②	③	④
4	Aggressive when its food is taken	①	②	③	④
5	Aggressive when awakened by physical contact	①	②	③	④
6	Aggressive when physically disturbed at rest	①	②	③	④
7	Aggressive when attempting to get it out of the cage	①	②	③	④
8	Aggressive with more than 5 seconds of eye contact	①	②	③	④
9	Aggressive at grooming, nail clipping, ear cleaning, or other painless procedures	①	②	③	④
10	Aggressive when grabbed by the leash and pulled back	①	②	③	④
11	Aggressive when removing or putting on the collar	①	②	③	④
12	Aggressive to loud sounds	①	②	③	④
13	Aggressive when threatened from afar by showing a newspaper, stick, or hand	①	②	③	④
14	Aggressive when walking next to it in the cage	①	②	③	④
15	Aggressive when asked to respond to commands	①	②	③	④
16	It wants to go to a determined place when it leaves the cage	①	②	③	④
17	Aggressive when unfollowing its path	①	②	③	④
18	Overprotective toward those it loves.	①	②	③	④
19	Aggressive when a stranger touches loved ones	①	②	③	④
20	Aggressive when accidentally pressed on its tail or one of its limbs	①	②	③	④
21	Aggressive when a stranger approaches	①	②	③	④
22	Responds to restlessness, loss of appetite, tremors, and excessive salivation when the keeper leaves it	①	②	③	④