

Supplementary Materials

Definition:

- Sedentary patient: a patient who does not engage in regular and habitual physical activity
- Athletes patient: a patient who engage in regular and habitual physical activity
- Agonist athletes patient: patients who engage in sports physical activity not recreationally but at high intensity level aimed at competition.

RVOT, LVOT and fascicular origin from 12-lead-ECG was established in relation to the criteria proposed by the these articles: 24,25,26.