This publication gathered the proceedings of the International Academic Symposium of Social Science 2022 (IASSC2022) held on 3 July 2022 in Kota Bharu, Kelantan, Malaysia. The conference was jointly organized by the Faculty of Information Management of Universiti Teknologi MARA Kelantan Branch, Malaysia; the Digital Information Interest Group (DIGIT), Malaysia; the University of Malaya, Malaysia; Universitas Pembangunan Nasional Veteran Jakarta, Indonesia; Universitas Ngudi Waluyo, Indonesia; Camarines Sur Polytechnic Colleges, Philippines; and UCSI University, Malaysia. Featuring experienced keynotes speakers from Malaysia, Australia, and England, these proceedings provided an opportunity for researchers, postgraduate students, and industry practitioners to gain knowledge and an understanding of advanced topics concerning digital transformations in the perspective of social sciences and information systems, focusing on issues, challenges, impacts, and theoretical foundations. These proceeding could be helpful in shaping the future of academia and the industry by compiling state-of-the-art works, as well as future trends concerning the digital transformation of social science and the information systems field. It is also considered an interactive platform allowing for the gathering of academicians, practitioners, and students from various institutions and industries. A total of 186 manuscripts was received for consideration; however, only 114 manuscripts were accepted for presentation and publication, comprising of participants from Malaysia, Australia, Indonesia, Jordan, Morocco, Nigeria, Pakistan, Philippines, Sudan, Thailand, and the United Kingdom.
