Message from the Guest Editor

After the success of the first Special Issue "Neurological Diseases in Children", I am pleased to announce a second Special Issue. This issue is aimed at all professionals dealing with neurological disorders during the developmental age: developmental neurologists, pharmacologists, psychologists, developmental psychiatrists. This Special Issue, like the first, aims to collect a series of studies and research on neurodevelopmental disorders, in particular on the recent discoveries concerning their etiopathogenesis and therapeutic treatment. Epilepsies in childhood and the new discoveries concerning the genes that cause them will also be studied. Other topics of interest for this second Special Issue are neuromuscular diseases and rare genetic syndromes. The issue also addresses new drug treatments that are used in the treatment of neurological disorders during the developmental age.

You are invited to contribute a research article or a comprehensive review for consideration and publication in Brain Sciences (ISSN 2076-3425). Brain Sciences is an open access, peer-reviewed scientific journal that publishes original articles, critical reviews, research notes, and short communications on neuroscience. The scientific community and the general public can access the content free of charge as soon as it is published.

Author Benefits

Open Access: free for readers, with article processing charges (APC) paid by authors or their institutions.

High Visibility: indexed within Scopus, SCIE (Web of Science), PubMed, PMC, Embase, PSYINDEX, CAPus / SciFinder, and other databases.

Rapid Publication: manuscripts are peer-reviewed and a first decision is provided to authors approximately 15.6 days after submission; acceptance to publication is undertaken in 2.5 days (median values for papers published in this journal in the second half of 2023).
