Message from the Guest Editor

Dear Colleagues,

As Section Editor-in-Chief of Climate Dynamics and Modelling in Climate, I am pleased to announce the Special Issue "Feature Papers of Section "Climate Dynamics and Modelling"". This Special Issue is designed to publish high-quality papers in Climate. We welcome submissions from Editorial Board Members and outstanding scholars invited by the Editorial Board and by the Editorial Office. The scope of this Special Issue includes, but is not limited to, all the aspects of the dynamics and modeling governing the global climate system.

You are welcome to send short proposals for submissions to our Editorial Office (climate@mdpi.com). They will first be evaluated by academic editors, and then selected papers will be thoroughly and rigorously peer reviewed. The fees for all the selected papers will be fully waived.
