Message from the Guest Editors

Dear Colleagues,

Coronavirus disease 2019 (COVID-19) has caused a huge strain on healthcare workers, patients, as well as on the general public—physically, financially, and psychologically. How far this illness may progress is a situation that is hard to predict. In this context, the editors of Healthcare have set up a Special Issue dedicated to various aspects of this pandemic and updates on the clinical spectrum of the disease.
