Message from the Guest Editors

This Special Issue focuses on the recent developments of metal transporters from the perspectives of physiology, toxicology, and pharmacology, with the aim of understanding their biological relevance in human health and diseases, addressing the future directions and questions underlying their unique phenomenon, in particular their potential use as drug targets for human diseases.

We believe this Special Issue will provide appropriate information about the implications and mechanisms of metal dynamics for health and disease, and thus should appeal to a wide range of readers.

The 33rd Meeting of Japan Society for Biomedical Research on Trace Elements 2022 (BRTE2022, <https://brte2022.jimdosite.com>) will be held at Awaji-shima, Japan on the 8–10 September 2022. All attendees presenting a paper at this conference are welcome to submit a manuscript for publication. ## Message from the Editor-in-Chief

The International Journal of Molecular Sciences (IJMS, ISSN 1422-0067) is an open access journal, which was established in 2000. The journal aims to provide a forum for scholarly research on a range of topics, including biochemistry, molecular and cell biology, molecular biophysics, molecular medicine, and all aspects of molecular research in chemistry. IJMS publishes both original research and review articles, and regularly publishes special issues to highlight advances at the cutting edge of research. We invite you to read recent articles published in IJMS and consider publishing your next paper with us.

Author Benefits

Open Access: free for readers, with article processing charges (APC) paid by authors or their institutions.

High Visibility: indexed within Scopus, SCIE (Web of Science), PubMed, PMC, MEDLINE, Embase, CAPlus / SciFinder, and other databases.

Journal Rank: JCR - Q1 (Biochemistry & Molecular Biology) / CiteScore - Q1 (Inorganic Chemistry)
