Message from the Guest Editor

Aim of the Special Issue: Our goal is to bridge the gap between innovative business practices, textual analysis and sustainable development within the journal's scope. We will explore how corporations, through advanced analysis and disclosure methodologies, can contribute significantly to sustainable development goals.

We invite submissions related, but not limited, to the following themes:

- Innovative SDG strategies and implementation;
- Textual and narrative analysis of SDGs;
- Integrating NLP and machine learning for SDG evaluation;
- Stakeholder engagement and sustainable business models;
- Evaluation of SDG impact;
- Ethical and social implications of SDGs.

In this Special Issue, we welcome original research articles and reviews, offering diverse perspectives and insights into the Sustainable Development Goals. Contributors are encouraged to explore interdisciplinary approaches, enhancing our understanding of sustainable business practices in a rapidly changing world.

We look forward to receiving your contributions.
