Message from the Guest Editors

Dear Colleagues,

This Special Issue welcomes articles dealing with the following:

- The existing criticalities or ‘virtuous’ elements in the relationship between territorial planning and conservation at the national and international levels;
- Innovative planning and decision-making approaches to heritage conservation at the urban and landscape scale;
- Heritage-driven or culture-driven approaches to urban and landscape regeneration;
- Participatory approaches to conservation issues and local community roles in heritage landscape planning and decision-making processes;
- Built heritage conservation’s specificities and challenges in development and transformation processes related to different territorial contexts (urban landscape and rural landscape);
- The cultural, social, and economic dimension of built heritage reuse and landscape enhancement;
- Assessment and evaluation methodologies to support conservation decisions;
- The multi-dimensional value of cultural heritage assets and landscape.

We look forward to receiving your original research articles and reviews.
