Message from the Guest Editor

Dear Colleagues,

Women make up more than half of Baptist church members globally, yet many histories of Baptists have neglected women, focusing instead on men and the institutions they lead. This Special Issue of Religions seeks to fill this lacuna. It will amplify women's voices in the Baptist story, from the early seventeenth century to the early twenty-first century. By highlighting women's contributions, the Special Issue will provide a fuller understanding of Baptist history as it actually happened.

We are pleased to invite you to contribute to this Special Issue. Original research articles and reviews are welcome. Contributions are welcome from scholars at all stages of their careers.

Research areas may include (but are not limited to) the following:

- Baptist women pursuing ministry
- Baptist women and missions
- Baptist women in the Majority World
- Baptist women's writings
- Biographies of Baptist women

We look forward to receiving your contributions.

Message from the Editorial Board

Fresh developments in the disciplines that consistently make significant contributions to our understanding of religious personality, authority, devotion, and community - disciplines ranging from psychology, sociology, and anthropology to history, art history, philosophy, literary criticism, and political science – fuel general, as well as scholarly, interest in the world's religions.

Religions is inviting innovative and comparative contributions. Please consider Religions as an exceptional, exciting enterprise ready to reward your trust, attention, and participation.
