Message from the Guest Editors

Dear Colleagues,

This Special Issue will highlight the impact of COVID-19 on different aspects of transport during COVID-19 and in post-COVID-19 times. We welcome papers on:

- Travel behavior among different age groups and for different trip purposes;
- Mobility challenges for users of different transport modes:
- Mobility preferences (mode and route choice);
- Demand prediction for different transport modes;
- Traffic congestion and road safety challenges;
- Active transport and accessibility attitudes;
- Mode sharing and different users of transport systems;
- Application of smart technologies;
- Challenges in transport systems (e.g., transport infrastructure; transport operation):
- Transport policies and transport economy.
