In the original manuscript, the word "fluorescein" was erroneously used indistinctly for "fluorescence" and "fluorescent". Furthermore, "cyan fluorescent protein" was misspelled. These errors have been amended in an amended version of the manuscript, which is available from the Molecules website. The authors and publisher apologize for the inconvenience.

The corrected version can be accessed at: http://www.mdpi.com/1420-3049/17/9/11667/s1.
