

Figure S1. Pearson correlation between samples. The horizontal and vertical coordinates on the graph represent the squared correlation coefficients for each sample.