

Supplementary Figure S1. Representative Western blotting of blood samples at different time points following different treatments. MPO was added to demonstrate the presence of neutrophil markers in isolated blood. Cit-H3 did not show any positive band. β-actin was used as a loading control.