The journal retracts the article “Functionalized Biomass Carbon-Based Adsorbent for Simultaneous Removal of Pb²⁺ and MB in Wastewater” [1].

The journal was contacted by members of the author group of the publication, and following an investigation, in coordination with the Editor-in-Chief, major uncertainties concerning the integrity of the authors’ contributions and the scientific integrity of the publication became apparent.

The article is therefore retracted.

This retraction was approved by the Editor in Chief of the journal Materials.

The authors agreed to this retraction.
