

Figure S10. The features of edge of P. x canadensis leaves: marginal glands (a); glandular part of trichomes with secret (indicated by red arrows) (b,c); the basis of teeth with epidermal cells and one stomata (indicated by white arrow) and the lignified palisade-like cells (d).