

Figure S1. ZIKV prM/E overexpression results in the formation of disulfide-crosslinked oligomers. HEK-293T cells were transfected with a plasmid encoding ZIKV prM/E protein. After 24h, protein extracts were harvested and either treated or not with DTT before SDS-PAGE. Western blot assay was achieved with a rabbit anti-EDIII antibody. These images are representative of three independent experiments.