Pediatric Reports was launched in 2009 and it has been published over the past eleven years by PAGEPress Publications [1]. Professor Maurizio Aricò has served as its Editor-in-Chief since its inception [2] and is currently still active in this role.

We are delighted to take over the publication of Pediatric Reports from PAGEPress and perpetuate the legacy of this journal, and ensure that we serve well the pediatrician community. Pediatric Reports complements very well the MDPI portfolio of medical journals [3], especially Children [4] and the International Journal of Neonatal Screening [5].

MDPI will publish the fourth quarterly issue of 2020 and will thereafter publish four quarterly issues as of 2021.

Enjoy publishing your work in Pediatric Reports [6]!
