

Do you agree with the basic distinction of developing the four components?

Are there different levels of importance between the components? Rate how important you consider each component for a succesful resettlement projects

Are the developed resettlement profiles suitable and representing reoccurring resettlement types?

