

Figure S1. The cell growth by haematoxylin and eosin (H&E) staining. H&E staining showed that with the passage of time (2w ~ 8w), the number of urothelial cells migrating to the marginal zone and those migrating to the central zone gradually increased.