

Supplementary Figure S1. Representative fast Fourier transform (FFT) used to set the defocus of images acquired for the survey. All images were acquired with a defocus of $0.7\mu\text{m}$ avoiding beam astigmatism and sample drift.