

Figure S1

Figure S1. Seasonal time of occurrence of post-treatment non-cancer specific elevation of serum squamous cell carcinoma antigen in patients with cervical cancer patients treated with definitive radiotherapy ($n = 128$).

Figure S2

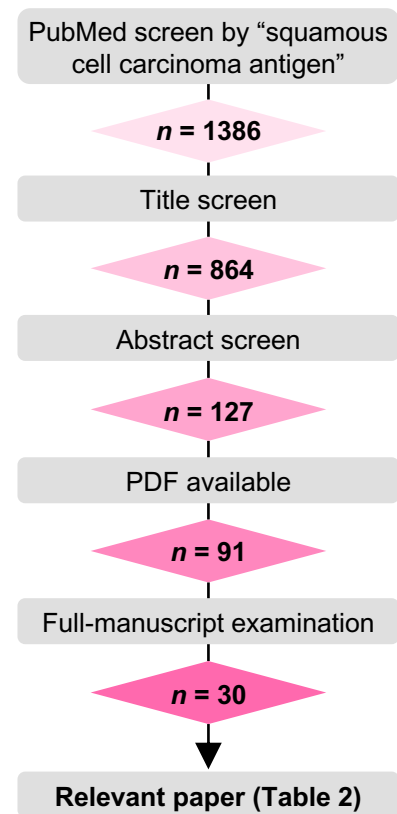

Figure S2. Flow diagram showing the systemic literature review of clinical factors potentially associated with non-cancer specific elevation of serum squamous cell carcinoma antigen levels.