

Figure S2. Representative western blot of the excretory/secretory products from adult worms of F. hepatica (FhES) revealed by a pool of serum samples from experimentally infected sheep before infection (control). The blot was in the 5–8 isoelectrical point range. Reference molecular weight masses are indicated on the left.