

Figure S1. Representative two-dimensional electrophoresis of 40 μ g of the excretory/secretory products from adult worms of F. hepatica (FhES). The gels were in the 3–10 isoelectrical point range, 12% poly-acrylamide and silver-stained. Reference molecular weight masses are indicated on the left.