

Figure S4. Spleen sizes of control (normal) and immunized mice following infection with B. abortus A19. On the 10th day following non-lethal A19 challenge, spleens of mice in each group were removed and compared with those of normal mice to observe differences in size and shape.