Xu-Wang Han, Hai-Tao Zheng *, Jin-Yuan Chen and Cong-Zhi Zhao

Fifteen tables contenting the decoding results described in the manuscript.

For each of the table, the first-row contents the summary written by human. On the second-row, left cell is the decoding results of our proposed DPBS method, and the right cell contains results produced by standard beam search.

Articles are randomly picked from the CNN/Daily Mail test dataset. Due to original documents are too long, and the purpose of this material is to demonstrate the diverse decoding method, we omitted the article content here.
