Supplementary data

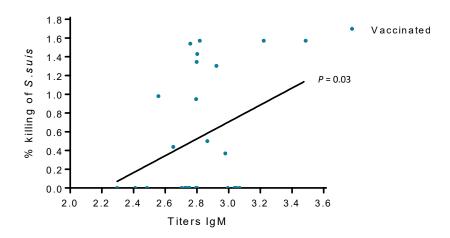

Figure S1. Experiment 1: Correlation between IgM levels and % of killing at 5 weeks of age in the vaccinated piglet group. Blood samples were collected from randomly chosen (and tagged) piglets at 5 weeks of age from 50 vaccinated animals to evaluate IgM titers and opsonophagocytosis assay (OPA) activity. A P value < 0.05 indicates a positive association.