

Figure S1. Irrigation curve based on sensor measurements between full water capacity and full dry soil. The full water capacity was determined empirically and corresponds to 222 ml H₂O for 1 kg soil. Based on the sensor readings, the pots were supplied with missing % of RWC in the corresponding treatments.