The authors wish to make the following corrections to this paper [1].

In the published manuscript, the first line in the abstract reads “Mat-Eater with Pennants” and should read “Man-Eater with Pennants”.

In the published manuscript, page number 1925, the C.I. number for chrome yellow (P.Y. 34) reads “C.I. 77,600”. Convention in writing C.I. numbers does not require the use of a comma, which is reflected in the remaining instances of using C.I. numbers throughout the published manuscript. Thus, the line should read “C.I. 77600”.

In the published manuscript, reference [15] reads “Zycherman, L. Calder Foundation, New York, NY, USA. Personal communication, 2021”. Lynda Zycherman is a sculpture conservator at The Museum of Modern Art, and thus the reference should read “Zycherman, L. Correspondence with the Calder Foundation, New York, NY, USA. Personal communication, 2021”.

The authors apologize for any inconvenience caused and state that the scientific conclusions are unaffected. The original article has been updated.
