

Figure S1. Melting curves for the candidate reference genes and target genes. Melting temperatures were visualized by plotting the negative first derivative of fluorescence relative to the temperature in Celsius ( $-(d/dT)$ ). Melting curves of twelve candidate reference genes and three target genes show a simple peak.