

The graph shows how mortality in terms of ASR-E per 100,000 for men and women, both, changed (decreased) based on number of performed PCIs per million inhabitants (primary PCIs).

In men:

In women:

Frequency of use of reperfusion therapy in STEMI patients in first 90 minutes is a quality indicator since year 1994.