

Figure S1. Pearson's correlation analysis of the samples. NL and HL indicate normal light and high light conditions, respectively. Numbers in red squares represents the correlation coefficient between samples.