Figure S2: Claudin expression differences in various parts of the oral cavity. Claudin expression differences between control and tumor tissue analyzed in Western Blot studies grouped in various areas of the oral cavity. The claudin expression in tumor tissue is higher (positive values) or lower (negative values) as in control tissue (=0). The mean difference of intensity between tumor and control after normalisation with β-actin is shown, error bars: 95% confidence interval.

