

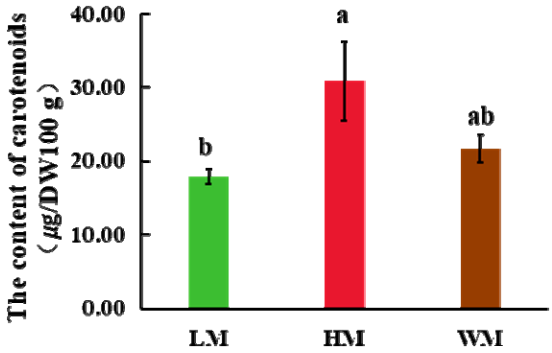

Figure S1. The total carotenoid contents of three G. elata varieties. The data represent the means in triplicate (n = 3); Different superscript letters indicate significant differences ($p < 0.05$).