

Supplemental Figure S1. Changes in R^2 and P values of a fitted time–temperature model with changes in the assumed upper-limit temperature for chilling injury c (Nedvěd et al. 1998; see main text for equation). The best values for parameters a and b were estimated by the least square method for each value of c at intervals of $0.01\text{ }^\circ\text{C}$.