

Supplementary Figure 3.

LEfSe analysis between Type A and B histology. This figure presents taxa detected when the P-value from the Kruskal-Wallis test for relative abundance between type A and B histology groups was increased from 0.05 to 0.1. Dominant taxa are indicated in red for Type A histology and in green for Type B histology.