

Supplementary Figure 1. Correlation among plant height, TGW, grain length and grain width in different environments.

Note: Horizontally and vertically, each four represents a phenotype, and each small cell represents a different environment.