

Supplementary File S1. State of the Art of the Social Innovation and Social Entrepreneurship within the Latin American HEIs

University	Does the university have knowledge about SI?	Does the University include Courses on SI or SE?	Are the topics of SI and SE integrated into the structure or practice of the university?	Does the university conduct research on Social Innovation?	Does the university collocate funds for SI and SE?	Do academic authorities support SI and SE?	Does the university have a clear policy to integrate SI and SE?	Has the university-built partnerships with the community and other stakeholders?
Institute Technological of Mexico	Yes. SE has been the core topic	Yes. "Entrepreneurial Leadership", "Leadership for Social Development" or "Entrepreneurship".	Yes. The topics of social innovation and social entrepreneurship are generally integrated into the structure and into the practice of the university.	Yes. Specifically, in the field of social economy, social entrepreneurship or linked to a welfare approach.	No. The search for funding opportunities is a challenge for ITESM	Yes. The university promoted specifically social entrepreneurship through labs, competitions, and so on.	Yes. The university is transforming policies and the strategy plan to include social innovation	Yes, but it is a challenge close relationship with the public sector.
University of Colima	Yes, in the field of social entrepreneurship	Yes, linked to social entrepreneurship	No before the project.	No. Social Innovation is new	No. Thanks to the project university is reviewing the strategy plan to include SI and SE.	No.	No.	Yes.
PUC Rio	Yes. Although, social	Yes. Minor Certificate in	Yes. Mainly those	Yes. But linked to a welfare	Yes, specifically	Yes, Specifically	Yes, regarding social	Yes.

University	Does the university have knowledge about SI?	Does the University include Courses on SI or SE?	Are the topics of SI and SE integrated into the structure or practice of the university?	Does the university conduct research on Social Innovation?	Does the university collocate funds for SI and SE?	Do academic authorities support SI and SE?	Does the university have a clear policy to integrate SI and SE?	Has the university-built partnerships with the community and other stakeholders?
	entrepreneurship has been the core topic	Entrepreneurship which special subjects on social innovation. The university thanks to the project was awarded by the UN.	regarding social entrepreneurship. A main challenge of the university is to encourage interdisciplinarity	approach and to social entrepreneurship. Thanks to the project, the university has published some articles on the SI field.	collocate funds on the Genesis incubator	Social Entrepreneurship through by the Genesis start-ups incubator	entrepreneurship, but no as regards social innovation. Challenge of sustainability
PUC Rio do Sul	Yes	Yes. The University has a long tradition in social entrepreneurship and social change.	Yes. Service Learning	Yes. Through the Technological management Agency, the university develops the triple helix, links between University-Society and Government.	Yes	Yes. The university has created INNOVAPUC and IDEAR an interdisciplinary lab for social innovation and entrepreneurship	Yes.	Yes.

University	Does the university have knowledge about SI?	Does the University include Courses on SI or SE?	Are the topics of SI and SE integrated into the structure or practice of the university?	Does the university conduct research on Social Innovation?	Does the university collocate funds for SI and SE?	Do academic authorities support SI and SE?	Does the university have a clear policy to integrate SI and SE?	Has the university-built partnerships with the community and other stakeholders?
PUC Valparaiso	Yes.	Yes. A training program: Program OUCV-Semillas (SEEDs)	Yes. Internal competitions to encourage social innovation and entrepreneurship within students and academic staff	Yes. Scarce	Yes. At the beginning, on social entrepreneurship and later on social innovation.	Yes. The GEN social incubator.	Yes. Specifically, social entrepreneurship. Yes. Network of academic staff, teachers, students, etc.	Yes although one of the main challenges of the university is to strength alliances and networks with stakeholders.
University of Talca	Yes	Yes. They have included courses in cross-cutting modules of Corporate Responsibility.	Yes. They ran a pilot with 500 students	Yes, but has to be promoted.	Yes. Programa Jóvenes Profesionales. Programa Prácticas Integrales.	Yes. The last strategy plan of the university incorporates many mechanisms to	Yes. Main challenge is Sustainability	Yes. More than 100 projects with different communities have been

University	Does the university have knowledge about SI?	Does the University include Courses on SI or SE?	Are the topics of SI and SE integrated into the structure or practice of the university?	Does the university conduct research on Social Innovation?	Does the university collocate funds for SI and SE?	Do academic authorities support SI and SE?	Does the university have a clear policy to integrate SI and SE?	Has the university-built partnerships with the community and other stakeholders?
		Main challenge is to develop a multidisciplinary approach			Hub Maule UTalca.	support SI and SE		promoted since 2007.
UNIMINU TO	Yes	Yes. The teaching program of the university has been awarded by the World Bank and the CFI. The courses range from those specialised in developing social innovation capabilities to those addressed to teach how to manage social innovation initiatives.	Yes. Through the teach, research and the engagement of the community. The university promotes competitions	Yes	Yes, Social Innovation Scientific Park.	Yes	Yes, they integrate SI and SE in the three missions of the university. The main challenges is to scaling-up the experience.	Yes. Strong partnerships.

University	Does the university have knowledge about SI?	Does the University include Courses on SI or SE?	Are the topics of SI and SE integrated into the structure or practice of the university?	Does the university conduct research on Social Innovation?	Does the university collocate funds for SI and SE?	Do academic authorities support SI and SE?	Does the university have a clear policy to integrate SI and SE?	Has the university-built partnerships with the community and other stakeholders?
University of Caldas	Yes, but in the university, SI is linked to corporate responsibility and social entrepreneurship.	Yes, TELESALUD program	Yes, but the university has a great challenge in this task	Yes, but it must be strength	Yes	Yes	Not at all, they recognise that they have to delve into the concept and identify what are they doing in each field.	Yes, but there is a great challenge in this task.
Technological Institute of Costa Rica	Yes. Specifically, about social entrepreneurship	Yes	No. There are initiatives and courses but they are siloed.	It is a challenge for the university	Yes. TEC Emprende Lab and Regionalización Universitaria	Yes	No. One of the challenges is to become a key transformative actor	Yes
University of Costa Rica	Yes, in the field of social entrepreneurship	Yes. Mainly regarding social entrepreneurship	No	Yes, in the field of Social Entrepreneurship	Yes	Yes	No	Yes.

Source. Authors' elaboration through different documents generated throughout the project.