File S1

Guiding themes for semi-structured interviews:

1. A description of the project's origins and its evolution over time
2. Critical issues experienced by the group
3. Strengths
4. Areas for improvement
5. The bond established with the local area
6. Links established with national and international networks
7. Possibilities for future development