UoM Meeting 2018: International PhD meeting in Economics

Message from the Guest Editor

We cordially invite you to contribute to our Special Issue of J on the theme of "Advances in Time Series and Forecasting". The main goal of this Special Issue, "Special Issue of UoM Meeting 2018", is to advance new science and methodologies in the fields of time series and forecasting in economics and finance. UoM Meeting 2018 (International PhD meeting in Economics) seeks to provide a discussion forum for researchers, educators and PhD students regarding the latest ideas in the foundations, theory, models and applications of time series and forecasting. The focus will be on applications in economics and finance.
