Message from the Guest Editors

Dear Colleagues,

In a transversal way, this Special Issue intends to publish a collection of scientific articles that address these aspects in human resource management and sustainable employability. Contributions must be in the form of articles, conceptual articles, or theoretical reviews and address the topic of this Special Issue.

We request that, prior to submitting a manuscript, interested authors initially submit a proposed title and an abstract of 200–500 words summarizing their intended contribution. Please send it to the Guest Editors (augustin.starecek@stuba.sk) or to the Administrative Sciences Editorial Office (admsci@mdpi.com). Abstracts will be reviewed by the Guest Editors for the purposes of ensuring proper fit within the scope of this Special Issue. Full manuscripts will undergo a double-blind peer-review process.

Keywords: human resource management; human capital development; gender diversity; age diversity; age diversity; outplacement; digitalization; labor force migration; competence development; transformation of occupations.

We look forward to receiving your articles.

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

Welcome to Administrative Sciences, the journal aims to advance and communicate knowledge concerning management theory and practice both in public administration and in profit organizations; it encourages submissions that build on interdisciplinary research in related fields, such as business, economics, political science, gender studies, psychology, sociology, physiology, communication theory or artificial intelligence and their implications on management, organizations and the society. Join us on a journey through the Administrative Sciences, where management merges with innovation.
