

Special Issue

Public Sector Accounting and Auditing in Europe

Message from the Guest Editor

This Special Issue aims to investigate public-sector accounting and auditing in the European context. The editor calls for theoretical, empirical, and literature review papers, covering the different levels of government, public-sector health entities, and public universities, using both quantitative and qualitative methodologies. Studies covering specific issues in the public sector, such as non-exchange transactions, or heritage assets, are particularly desirable, investigating the various standards adopted in different European countries. Even if research focused on a single country is welcomed, taking a comparative approach would be preferable, in order to discuss accounting and auditing issues through the lens of both the standardization and the international harmonization processes...

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

Welcome to Administrative Sciences, the journal aims to advance and communicate knowledge concerning management theory and practice both in public administration and in profit organizations; it encourages submissions that build on interdisciplinary research in related fields, such as business, economics, political science, gender studies, psychology, sociology, physiology, communication theory or artificial intelligence and their implications on management, organizations and the society. Join us on a journey through the Administrative Sciences, where management merges with innovation.
