Message from the Guest Editor

Dear Colleagues,

I invite you to submit original research papers and review articles to the second edition of the Special Issue “Animal Reproduction: Semen Quality Assessment”.

Semen analysis is an important aspect in the diagnosis of semen used in assisted reproductive technology. Different factors can affect the quality of semen of different animal species. Therefore, a thorough understanding of the mechanisms affecting sperm formation is critical for the proper determination of fertilization capacity. Andrology is constantly introducing new advances in the laboratory evaluation of semen.
