Message from the Guest Editors

Dear Colleagues,

It is our pleasure to announce a Special Issue of “Applied Sciences in Orthopedics”. This Special Issue will publish submissions from across all areas related to clinical and basic research on orthopedic surgery, especially involving orthopedic imaging and biomechanics. Many studies have focused on the aging of the musculoskeletal system, but recently there have been many sports injuries and functional deficits caused by abnormal or extreme movement. Many novel technologies and devices have been developed and applied in orthopedics to diagnose or treat these patients. However, there is a lack of long-term follow-up to prove their efficacy. This Special Issue intends to provide a platform to include all related research in order to explore the unsolved problems in future collaborations. Your contribution in the form of sharing your outstanding research outcomes will definitely make this Special Issue much more meaningful for this purpose.

We look forward to hearing from you and to your contribution to this Special Issue.

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

As the world of science becomes ever more specialized, researchers may lose themselves in the deep forest of the ever increasing number of subfields being created. This open access journal Applied Sciences has been started to link these subfields, so researchers can cut through the forest and see the surrounding, or quite distant fields and subfields to help develop his/her own research even further with the aid of this multi-dimensional network.

Author Benefits

Open Access: free for readers, with article processing charges (APC) paid by authors or their institutions.

High Visibility: indexed within Scopus, SCIE (Web of Science), Inspec, CAPlus / SciFinder, and other databases.

Journal Rank: JCR - Q2 (Engineering, Multidisciplinary) / CiteScore - Q1 (General Engineering)
