Recent Advances in Geochemistry

Message from the Guest Editors

The 10th National Conference on Applied Geochemistry in China will be held in Kunming, Yunnan Province, on 1–3 November and hosted by the Committee of Applied Geochemistry, Chinese Society for Mineralogy, Petrology and Geochemistry (CSMPG). This Special Issue is dedicated to facilitating academic exchanges of geochemistry through the presentation of recent advances and new applications in this field. This Special Issue will publish high-quality original research papers covering the following topics:

- Geochemical exploration and geochemical survey;
- Environmental geochemistry;
- Agricultural and ecological geochemistry;
- Geochemistry and human health;
- Geochemistry of rocks and mineral deposits;
- Health geology;
- Applied geochemistry in other social services;
- Application of big data in geochemistry.

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

As the world of science becomes ever more specialized, researchers may lose themselves in the deep forest of the ever increasing number of subfields being created. This open access journal Applied Sciences has been started to link these subfields, so researchers can cut through the forest and see the surrounding, or quite distant fields and subfields to help develop his/her own research even further with the aid of this multi-dimensional network.
