Recent Sustainable Advancements in the Pulp and Paper Industry: A Life Cycle Perspective

Message from the Guest Editor

This Special Issue aims to address several key areas: (1) Environmental Sustainability: Sustainability is a crucial topic of focus for the pulp and paper industry. This Special Issue will highlight innovations in sustainable production technologies that reduce environmental impact and promote resource efficiency. (2) Life Cycle Assessment (LCA) of Paper Grades: By incorporating LCA, this Special Issue can provide comprehensive insights into the environmental impacts of different paper grades, leading to improvements in sustainability throughout their life cycles. (3) Innovative Production Technologies: This Special Issue welcomes research on cutting-edge technologies and processes that enhance sustainability, such as advancements in recycling, alternative raw materials, and energy-efficient production methods.

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

As the world of science becomes ever more specialized, researchers may lose themselves in the deep forest of the ever increasing number of subfields being created. This open access journal Applied Sciences has been started to link these subfields, so researchers can cut through the forest and see the surrounding, or quite distant fields and subfields to help develop his/her own research even further with the aid of this multi-dimensional network.
